Let the little chink "Chinamel" gnaw your floor or woodwork. He does it over old painted surfaces at a ridiculous small cost.

STONE, The Druggist.

V. Oral Hodges who recently came here from Lincoln to take a position as local reporter on the Daily Telegraph will leave Thursday for Lincoln where he will be married on Saturday, Mar. 18th to Miss Bertha Davis of that city. They will return here Monday and have taken apartments in the Fowles house on west 5th street.

Lost, strayed or stolen last Monday, one bay mare with two year old colt. Anyone knowing their whereabouts please phone to Lierk & Sandall.

"Robin Hood" was presented at the Keith last evening by the DeKoven Opera Co. to a large audience, especially large for the Lenten season. The bright and tuneful music was well rendered, the solos and men's choruses being particularly good. The audience was enthusiastically receptive and generous in its applause. Particularly popular were "O, Promise Me" by Cora Tracy, the Armorer's song by Herbert Waterous, and "Brown October Ale" by the men's chorus. The scenery was fine and the costumes attractive.

Cheap Politics

I desire to most emphatically deny the report that some of my good(?) friends have circulated that I have withdrawn from the race for sheriff. I am in the race to the finish and my friends will please pay no attention to the above report or any other report that may possibly be circulated.

A. J. SALISBURY.

Elks Install Officers

Officers of the B. P. O. Elks who were nominated at a previous meeting were inducted into office last evening. The new officers are as follows: Exalted Ruler, J. T. Keefe; Leading Knight, Roy Cochran; Loyal Knight, P. R. Halligan; Lecturing Knight, Loren Sturges; Secretary, F. T. Redmond; Treasurer, Harry Dixon; Tyler, Will Friend.

The Roller Skating Dead Line.

Complaints against roller skating on the business streets become so frequent that Mayor Evans has issued an order prohibiting the use of the skates on Locust and Dewey streets and the east and west cross streets in the business section. The skating habit became so popular that it interfered to a great extent with lady pedestrians, a number of whom have narrowly escaped serious injury.

Trying to Right an Injustice.

A. B. Hoagland is circulating a petition asking the county commissioners to create a new precinct and thus provide a convenient polling place for those voters who live outside of the city and are compelled to travel four miles to the Baker school house in order to exercise the right of suffrage. For years this has been an injustice to these residents, and has resulted in a forced disfranchisement of at least fifty per cent of them. The total number of voters that will be benefited by favorable action in this matter is about eighty.

A Noted Specialist to Lecture

Dr. Horace Warren, of Missouri Valley, Iowa, specialist of mouth hygiene, will lecture to the school children of North Platte Friday, March 17th. It is secured through the co-operation of the dentists' association of the city at the recommendation of the officers of the Nebraska State Dental Society, of which Dr. O. H. Cressler of this city is president, and Dr. H. C. Brock is a member of the month hygiene committee. Dr. Warren has the credit of lecturing to more children in the United States than any other man. He was the main speaker at the Better Babies contest at Omaha and will speak one day each to the public schools in the cities of Beatrice, Hastings, Grand Island, Kearney and North Platte.

A son was born last evening to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rodden.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Fenwick returned last evening from Cheyenne where they visited their daughters.

At a meeting of the public library board last evening it was decided to have flower boxes, shrubs and a hedge placed on the library grounds.

The Assembly club met Friday afternoon, Mesdames Earhart and Woolbach entertaining. After a very pleasant afternoon a dainty two course lunch was served.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Berthe Saturday evening to help them celebrate their fourteenth wedding anniversary. The evening was pleasantly spent in card games.

The domestic science department of the Twentieth Century club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. S. Davis. Mrs. T. C. Patterson acted as leader and papers on the "Help" question were read by Mesdames Cotterell, Elder and Reynolds.
